

By participating in the KB Pro Program, you (“you” or “Member”) consent to these KB Pro Account Program Rules (the “Program Rules”). You acknowledge and agree that: (1) you have read and accepted these Program Rules and are responsible for remaining knowledgeable about these Program Rules; (2) you are a professional customer and will use your Program membership only in association with your business transactions; (3) the expiration and renewal of your Program membership is by KB Countertops in its sole discretion; and (4) The KB countertops reserves the right to change these Program Rules or terminate the Program at any time, with or without prior written notice to you.

Taxation and other Fees. All federal, state, and local income taxes, insurance, licensing, registration, liabilities, surcharges, title fees and any other fees connected to the Program are the sole responsibility of the Member. In order to issue a check, complete a Form W-9 and Form 1099 will be issued by KB Countertops at the end of the year.

Qualifying Purchases history will not begin to be tracked unless and until you have completed the registration requirements set forth herein.

KB Countertops reserves the right at any time and without notice to cancel the Program or change these Program Rules at any time, including without limitation, to change eligibility requirements, eligible brands, and the products, benefits, sub-programs, and scope of the Program.

Program Offers cannot be combined with any other offer.

The Program is effective from the day signed by the “Member” and from January 1 to December 31 each calendar year unless otherwise stated herein (each separate calendar year is a “Program Period”). The Qualifying Purchases Minimum Threshold reached by each Member at the end of an applicable Program Period is determined by KB Countertops.

The Program is available only to professional customers of The KB Pro account who have fully completed the registration process.
